Y'all know how I do it man I leave em mega flustered
Im The only mega man, and you're a mega buster Sick as roboenza, and think it's time to end ya, incapacitate ya game, and all of it's members,
Gimme the triple blade water shield
Solar blaze and chill spike, Check all the nuts and bolts screw em on real tight
Don't wait up cuz this might be long one
Cuz I ain't coming back until theyre all done,
It was like a quiz show and mega picked the wrong one,
Blue bomber loves lasagna but now imma make some sauce run,
Toss one after the next with the wheel cutter,
Crab puncher or whatever, trust they will suffer
Whether Proto is there or not
I don't care a lot, all I need is to be strongest, head of the flock,
Evil energy capsules got me dashin,
Double jumpin, bustin long as the bass pumpin,
Let me tell you somethin,
No pleasure it's all pain
It's my game you're small change, my name is..

CHORUS

(BASS!)

That my name and don't forget it
Anytime and anywhere I'm always down to set it, let's get it
(How low can u go)
As low as I need to,
I prove that I'm the strongest,
Fool we don't need you
My name is (BASS!)
Takin down these junk bots wit one shot: the fun stops, (badder than bad 'cause the brother is madder than mad)

Shot caller, I'm mean as a Rottweiler fitted wit shock collars, ready to stop all of your play, my forte is guns not swordplay, enemies be warned you're in for a short stay
Its your day, so i just Adjust the levels on em,
I tried to warn em now I gotta sic treble on em wily built me and broke the mold,
So its no doubt that I'm the strongest
And highest on the totem pole
He's got no control, Give it up for free will
If he was smarter he'd have probably had me killed

So dont think we friends cuz were associates,
I'll deal with you later on when it's appropriate
But for now on roboenza's where my focus is,
This is another sick scheme I just know it is,
One bass buster blast and his whole games through
I won't give him a chance like you always do
You know what they say about he who hesitates in war:
he who hesitates is lost- my name is

(CHORUS)
